St. Cecilia's Guild Complete Plans For Two-Day Rummage Sale

Final arrangements have been completed for the rummage sale sponsored by members of St. Cecilia's guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

Location of the sale, set for Friday and Saturday, Oct. 3 and 4, is the former Whelan drug store, adjoining Levy department store. Doors will open each day at 9:30 a.m.

Those wishing to contribute to the stock will find the ladies at the store room today from 10 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

The first rummage in more than a year for the organization, the sale promises to be one of the most successful sponsored by St. Cecilia's. A large variety of children's and adults' clothing, as well as household items, will be offered for sale.

Christian Church Woman's Council To Meet Tuesday

The Woman's council of First Christian church will meet at 1:00 p.m., Tuesday, October 7, in the church. Circle 3 will be the hostess group.

An interesting program has been prepared and all the women are urged to attend.

The bazaar will be held on Thursday, Oct. 9, when tea will be served from 2 to 4 o'clock, dinner from 5 to 7. Tickets for the dinner may be secured from members of the Berean class.

On a honeymoon trip following their wedding Saturday evening in Little Church of the West, Hotel Last Frontier, Las Vegas, Nev., are Dr. Robin A. Bingham of Las Vegas and formerly of this city and his bride, the former Miss Dorothy Reddington, of 1617 Arlington ave. Rev. E. A. Wessel, of Las Vegas Lutheran church, officiated in presence of relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, B. N. Reddington, of Helper, Utah, the attractive tian-haired bride chose as her wedding attire a suit of winter navy with gray fur trim and gray accessories. Her costume was complemented with a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Roy Lehman, of San Bernardino, as her sister's matron of honor, wore a green suit with a gardenia corsage. A. M. Bingham, of this city, attended his brother as best man.

Following the ceremony, dinner was served in the Ramona Room of Hotel Frontier, where the traditional wedding cake was cut.

Among the guests were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Reddington, of Helper, Utah; her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lehman, of San Bernardino; the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bingham, and his nephew Dr. R. A. Hogue, Messrs. and Mmes. R. R. Smith, Harvel Guttenfelder, A. H. Silligo, Walter E. Schlick, John Melville, Mrs. Marie Marsteller, all of this city and Baker Smith, of Hermosa Beach and formerly of Torrance.

Perry School PTA At Opening Meeting Of Fall Season

Mrs. A. B. Cowie, president, opened the first fall meeting of Perry school Parent Teacher Association Tuesday evening, Sept. 23, in the school auditorium.

Colors were presented by color guards of Girl Scout Troop No. 867 and Brownie Scout Troop No. 868 led by Mrs. Thomas Eaton. Mrs. W. C. Graham, vice president, read the objectives of the P.T.A. as an inspirational.

Robert C. Morton introduced his teachers and said he was very happy to have such an outstanding faculty. Mrs. Cowie reported on the Education Advisory council's meetings and the chairman of the association gave their reports. Announcement was made of plans for a school carnival Oct. 31. Mrs. W. C. Graham, program chairman, presented Ralph Mattie, of El Nido, pianist who played "Minuet in G." J. Henrich Hull, superintendent of schools, was introduced and expressed gratitude for an opportunity to meet with the members and explain various school problems. He assured his audience that Perry and Walteria schools are just as important as downtown Torrance schools, and that all schools are receiving the same consideration of their problems.

Superintendent Hull explained that the bus situation is serious with so few buses to cover the 19 square miles of Torrance. Everything possible had been done to get signals for the 182nd and Hawthorne intersection, he stated, with no results as yet. He is still trying to obtain the signals or a traffic guard for this spot.

Emmet Ingram, assistant superintendent of schools, stated that maintenance men had been working at top speed to put the schools in the best possible condition, and although they are not what he eventually desires as class "A" buildings, are much improved. He invited parents to call on their administrators and teachers.

Dr. Howard Wood, president; Mrs. Grace Wright, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Carr, George Thatcher and Carl Steele, members of the Board of Education, were then introduced and each assured the association that the Board is vitally interested in all the schools, all the children and all the problems, that they were happy to have the opportunity to become better acquainted with the Perry district.

Discussion followed with members presenting their various problems to Superintendent Hull.

C. E. Guild Group Completes Plans For Two-Day Rummage Sale

Completion of arrangements for a rummage sale, sponsored by Central Evangelical guild, has been announced by Mrs. R. L. Harper, guild president.

With the sale dates set for Friday and Saturday, Oct. 10 and 11, in the storeroom formerly occupied by Whelan Drug Company, the ladies have been busy segregating stock for the sale, including children's and adults' clothing, household furniture, curtains, draperies and miscellaneous articles.

Further contributions are solicited by committee members Mrs. D. N. McCormack, 1918 Andree ave., Mrs. E. M. Johnston, 1404 Engracia ave., Mrs. Alice Spehger, 1307 Portola ave. and the president, Mrs. Harper, 1519 Acacia ave.

EXCHANGE ALTAR VOWS . . . Donald Moyer and the former Miss Frances Nadine Paour, whose marriage was solemnized in a beautiful candlelight service in St. Andrew's Episcopal church. (Bob Roberts photo).

Miss Frances Nadine Paour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour, of 1610 Amapola ave., became the bride of Mr. Donald Moyer, son of Mrs. Lois Moyer, of El Segundo, in a candlelight ceremony last Friday evening in St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The impressive rites were performed by Rev. Paul Moore Wheeler in the presence of 150 wedding guests.

The lovely bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore traditional white satin fashioned with shawl collar, long sleeves and full train. Her fingertip veil was draped from a pearl-beaded coronet and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried a bridal arrangement of gardenias centered with a detachable orchid corsage.

Miss Phyllis McVicar as maid of honor, was beautifully attired in dusty rose satin with net overskirt and her flowers were pale pink rosebuds with pastel blue satin streamers. Raymond Moyer, of El Segundo, was his brother's attendant and Frank Paour Jr. and John K. Seaton, of El Segundo, ushered. Mrs. Ami Bourjain played the wedding marches and the accompaniment for Glen Hall, who sang "Through the Years" and "Because."

At the reception in Parish hall following the ceremony Mrs. Paour received in chaise with fuchsia trim and accessories complemented by an orchid corsage. Mrs. Moyer wore powder blue crepe with matching accessories and orchids.

Subsequently Mr. and Mrs. Moyer left for a honeymoon at Crestline and Lake Arrowhead. They will be at home at 2122 Gramercy ave.

The bride, now employed at the San Pedro business office of Southern California Telephone Co., was graduated from Torrance high school and attended Compton Junior college. Her husband is a journalism student at University of Southern California.

Prenuptial Shower
Among the many prenuptial courtesies extended the bride was a miscellaneous shower given by the Misses Phyllis McVicar and Elsa Stanley at the home of the former, 2120 Gramercy ave.

A large wedding bell, suspended over the table with streamers extending at intervals to the lace cloth, created an effective white and silver decorative theme. Floating white chrysanthemums in a crystal formed the centerpiece.

Guests included the honoree and Mesdames C. T. Rippey Jr., William Rogers, James Weir, Guy DeWitt, Sam Intermill, Richard Rojo, the Misses Barbara Lock, Barbara Moyer, Madeline Ban, Patty Townsend and Doris Lee Quaggin.

Bratton-Hansen Wed Saturday In Nevada Ceremony

At home following their marriage Saturday evening in Las Vegas, Nev., are Robert Alan Bratton, of Los Angeles and formerly of this city and his bride, the former Miss Betty Hansen, daughter of Mrs. G. S. Schooler, of Los Angeles.

Attractively attired in a beige suit with contrasting accessories and wearing a corsage of orchids, the bride was attended by Mrs. Richard Miller, also of Los Angeles. Attending the bridegroom as best man was Richard Miller.

Mrs. Bratton was educated in Los Angeles. Her husband, a son of William H. Bratton, Torrance Pacific Electric agent, and Mrs. Bratton, who reside at 1627 Buckingham road, Los Angeles, was graduated from Black Fox Military academy and attended University of Southern California. He is co-owner of Park Sport Shop, Leimert Park. The young couple will live in Los Angeles.

ON WEEK'S VACATION
Councilman and Mrs. A. L. Jackson have returned from a week's vacation at Crestline where they occupied the Fred Bever-cabin.

CDA's At Authentic Spanish Dinner, Gay Evening Entertainment

Enjoyable among recent C.D.A. social affairs was a Spanish dinner served to more than 60 members of Court St. Catherine and their guests gathered Monday evening in Nativity hall.

Hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Marie Alford and her committee, Mmes. Alice Clayton, Amelia Martinez, Josephine Bruhanski, Mildred Alford, all of Torrance, and Lupe Massey of Wilmington.

A program of dance selections, presented by students of Three Arts studio, featured Sharon Felker, Jackie Pagac, Marjorie Lovell, Betty Jean Wilson and Frances Speekt.

Also appearing on the well-arranged program was Rachel Figueroa, of San Pedro, in authentic Spanish costume, who played her own guitar accompaniment for a group of Spanish songs.

Mrs. Theresa Murray, at the piano, played favorite selections throughout the evening. Vocal selections by Phyllis Yergen, also a member of Court St. Catherine, added to the enjoyment of the evening.
